

Seattle Draft & Military Counseling Center Board of Directors Position Description

The GI Rights Hotline is a national network of nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations who provide information to servicemembers about military discharges, grievance and complaint procedures, and other civil rights. Seattle Draft and Military Counseling Center answers calls in Washington State.

The purpose of the Seattle Draft and Military Counseling Center is to provide accurate, comprehensive, and objective information about Selective Service, military law, military regulations, and administrative procedure to anyone in need of this service, and to assist them in applying this information to their own situation and goals. SDMCC also supports conscientious objectors and promotes individual and collective resistance to war and preparations for war.

Essential Duties

- ◇ Abide by the bylaws
- ◇ Support the mission and philosophy of the organization
- ◇ Represent the organization professionally
- ◇ Maintain counselee confidentiality
- ◇ Know limits and act within these limits
- ◇ Personal and ethical limits (as stipulated by trainings and our by-laws)
- ◇ Promote SDMCC and the GI Rights Hotline

Tasks & Responsibilities

- ◇ Develop familiarity with GI Rights Hotline
- ◇ Commit to at least one year as a board member
- ◇ Outreach for new members
- ◇ Help raise funds to support the organizations program and mission
- ◇ Put on annual meeting
- ◇ Attend board meetings
- ◇ Review, revise and approve policy as needed

If you have questions or are interested in applying and would like an application, please contact Alex Bacon, Board Chair at Seattle Draft and Military Counseling Center via email at alex@sdmcc.org or by phone at 206-214-8823.